INCIDENT REPORT

Date : 10/25/04    Period : 2    Class : Math (M$5)    Room: 529    Teacher : Mr. Fofana

D.D.'s desk is placed right in front of mine : he can stretch his hand and reach my desktop. Given his belligerent attitude, I re-assigned him to another seat : he refused. Today, he claims that I am a gay like Lavalas (presumably another teacher : I am not sure about the spelling).

I reported his yesterday threat (" Get off my back if you don't want me to smack your face and break your laptop") to his guidance counselor, Mr. Brutus.

INCIDENT REPORT

11/01/04

Student : D.D.            Time : Period 2    Room : 529            Teacher : Mr. Fofana

D. continues his verbal abuse. Last week I sent him to the Principal office for his derogatory remarks : “he is crazy ; he is a gay”. Prior to that I gave a note to his guidance counselor (Mr. Jean Brutus) explaining similar behavior.

Today, another student asks me “ why you keep saying you are supposed to have studied that in MS2”. Dwight jumped in : “ Because he is retarded.”

Also, D.’s insubordination must be addressed. I gave him another seat away from my desk because his is adjacent to mine, and he would not stop calling me names , to my face virtually. He claims that his guidance counselor allows him to sit there.

The student’s daily provocations must stop.

INCIDENT REPORT

Student : D.D.

Time : Period 2 Room : 529

Teacher : Mr. Fofana

Ms. Adonai came to my room. She noticed that D. was eating (as usual) , and told him to stop. She was returning two students who left without permission : C. R., a new student who refused to take her assigned seat ; S. C. who found the room cold. As I explained that these students were not kicked out as they may have her believe, D. interjected : "he told her to shut up " speaking of C. (C. did not claim that). I told him this is not a concern of him. He replied : "Shut up !". Right in front of Ms. Adonai
